Eat pizza to help Lake Grove Elementary

Pizzicato Restaurant will hold a benefit for Lake Grove Elementary School on Oct. 11, when 20 percent of all sales will be donated to the school's PTA.

Pizzicato is located at 15180 S.W. Bangy Road in Lake Oswego. Orders may be called in at 503-670-8388. Additionally, they may be picked up half-baked for added convenience.

For more information, contact Lara James at danlara.james@Comcast.net.

Come to Riverdale fall carnival Oct. 2

Riverdale Grade School PTC will hold a Fall Carnival on Oct. 2 from 2 to 5 p.m. at Riverdale Grade School, 11733 S.W. Breyman Ave. in Portland.

Games, food, a pie-eating contest, dunk tank and more are planned.

The public is invited to attend.

Help offered in writing college essay

Westside Christian High School is hosting a college essay writing workshop to help high school students create a college admission application essay.

The workshop will be held Oct. 6 and 7 from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. in the school's library.

The workshop is open to the public.

Pam Lau, a former college writing professor and freelance writer will lead the workshop.

Cost for the two-day event is $75 and $20 for a second member of the same family. To sign up email Scott Ball at ball@wchsonline.org by Sept. 30.

Westside Christian High School is located at 4565 Carman Drive.

Buy tickets for the Food for Thought event

St. Mary's Academy's annual Food for Thought Luncheon will take place Nov. 10 in the Grand Ballroom at the Hilton Portland and Executive Tower in downtown Portland.

Individual tickets and table sponsorships are available, with money raised benefiting St. Mary's Academy's Tuition Assistance Program.

St. Mary's is located at 1615 S.W. Fifth Ave., Portland.

Keynote speaker for the event is Christine Carter, Ph.D., a sociologist at the Greater Good Science Center, U.C. Berkeley, and author of "Raising Happiness: 10 Simple Steps for More Joyful Kids and Happier Parents."

Carter studies the science of happiness and the role that practicing gratitude and giving plays in achieving lasting joy.

"Happiness is a tremendous advantage in a world that emphasizes performance," Carter writes in her book. "On average, happy people are more successful than unhappy people at both work and love."

Also speaking at the luncheon will be St. Mary's Academy senior Polina Guzenko, who is a tuition assistance recipient.

Her family emigrated from her native Ukraine in 1999; her father died before they moved to the U.S., leaving her mother to support four daughters.

Guzenko is thankful for the support of Food for Thought Luncheon patrons who have enabled her to access a St. Mary's education, which she credits with setting the course for her future.

To purchase tickets to the event or for more information about sponsoring a table, contact Mary Ann Albright at 503-721-7715.

'Being an American' essay contest open

U.S. high school students in ninth-12th grade and their teachers are invited to participate in the Bill of Rights Institute's sixth annual Being an American Essay Contest.

The contest explores the founding principles outlined in the Constitution. The contest is administered by the Bill of Rights Institute, a nonprofit educational organization in the Washington, D.C., area devoted to education students about the Constitution and the founding principles. The 2011-12 contest is sponsored by the History Channel.

Students are asked to share their thoughts on the Constitution by answering the following question: How does the Constitution establish and maintain a culture of liberty?

The top three student winners from each of the five geographical regions will be awarded cash prizes of $1,000, $500 and $250. Teacher sponsors for each student winner will also receive $100.

Submission deadline is Dec. 15 and winners will be announced in February. Essay length is no more than 1,000 words. Essays should be submitted to www.billofrightsinstitute.org/submit. For more information, visit www.billofrightsinstitute.org/contest.
