PRIVATE NW DINNER
SWISS RÖSTI STYLE

28

Looking for a unique private dinner experience to reconnect with friends? Look no further than our very own St. Mary’s family whose travels abroad inspired them to perfect and launch the renowned Swiss Rösti! Steve and Lory Caldwell invite you and seven (7) friends into their Northwest Portland brownstone to embark on a Swiss dinner journey. A little history - the Swiss Rösti originated in Bern, Switzerland in the early 1800’s as peasant food. Wives would shred potatoes which were cheap, fill a frying pan, add leftovers from supper and cover with more hash browns. Fried on both sides, these filled Rösti’s would sustain the men in the fields all day. Fast forward where “Swiss Meets West” - Steve & Lory Caldwell fell in love with Rösti in their travels abroad and brought this yummy Swiss tradition back home. They both have been perfecting the recipe with their five children, including their St. Mary’s freshman, and serving them to family and friends ever since. Because nothing’s better than sharing simple healthful ingredients, savory flavors and great conversation with the people we love.
